

SOCIETY

FT. SHAFTER SOCIETY

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
FT. SHAFTER, Nov. 18.—Lieut. Col. and Mrs. William R. Dashiell entertained at cards on Saturday evening, complimenting Madame Rockwood, who has been the house-guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Lieut. and Mrs. Rockwood, for the past month. There were three tables of bridge and one table of 500. Those playing were Maj. and Mrs. William B. Cochran, Madame Cochran, Mrs. Lohman, Lieut. Eugene Lohman, Madame Rockwood, Lieut. and Mrs. Alfred S. Rockwood, Lieut. and Mrs. Carl A. Harding, Madame Pearson, Mrs. Edward Fuller Witsell, Mrs. Charles L. Wyman, Lieut. Stephen H. MacGregor and Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Dashiell. Madame Cochran held the highest score at the 500 table while Mrs. Rockwood and Lieut. MacGregor held the highest honors in bridge. Later in the evening a delicious supper was served at the small tables at which the guests had been playing.

Capt. and Mrs. Arthur T. Dalton had as dinner guests on Sunday Capt. and Mrs. Le Verne S. Gregg and Miss Elizabeth Gregg of Schofield Barracks.

Miss Anne Grey Hawkins of Schofield Barracks was the house-guest of Maj. and Mrs. Guy G. Palmer over Sunday.

The many friends of Capt. and Mrs. Thomas L. Crystal will be glad to know that they returned from their trip to the mainland on the last transport and will also be pleased to know that Capt. Crystal has entirely recovered from his recent illness.

Lieut. and Mrs. Ralph C. Holliday entertained at dinner in their home in the cantonment on Sunday for Miss Ruth Tybbs of Honolulu and Lieut. Stephen H. MacGregor.

Lieut. Col. and Mrs. William R. Dashiell entertained in their home in the main garrison on Thursday evening in their usual hospitable manner. Shasta daisies were gracefully intermingled with maidenhair fern to form a centerpiece for the daintily appointed table, on which covers were laid for Capt. and Mrs. William E. Hunt, Dr. and Mrs. Bernhardt K. Stumberg, Madame Pearson, Mrs. Edward Fuller Witsell and the host and hostess. After dinner Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Dashiell motored their guests to the reception in honor of the natal day of King Kalakaua, that was given at the National Guard Armory.

Many of the contingent of Fort Shafter will hear with pleasure that Capt. and Mrs. Lloyd R. Fredendall will return to the 2nd Infantry, as Capt. Fredendall has just received orders assigning him to that regiment.

Mrs. William R. Dashiell was the hostess this week for the Tuesday evening card club. Those playing during the evening were Lieut. Col. and Mrs. William R. Dashiell, Madame Pearson, Madame Cochran, Mrs. William B. Cochran, Capt. and Mrs. Raymond A. Wheeler, Mrs. Daniel Lane Howell, Capt. and Mrs. Claire R. Bennett, Mrs. William E. Hunt, Dr. and Mrs. Bernhardt K. Stumberg, Mrs. Charles L. Wyman, Lieut. and Mrs. Ralph C. Holliday, Miss Elizabeth Rosenbaum, Mrs. Edward Fuller Witsell and Mrs. Alden C. Knowles. Lieut. Holliday was the fortunate winner of a very good looking brass vase.

Mrs. Arthur T. Dalton entertained on Wednesday afternoon at bridge for Mrs. Claire R. Bennett, Mrs. Charles L. Wyman and Mrs. Ralph C. Holliday. The prize, which was an attractive Japanese vase, was awarded to Mrs. Bennett, who held the highest honors.

Saturday evening a jolly party motored to Fort De Russy for a moonlight swim. After a refreshing dip, a delicious supper was enjoyed. The participants in this affair were Capt. and Mrs. Raymond A. Wheeler, Lieut. and Mrs. Ralph C. Holliday, Miss Jewel Mattis, Miss Elizabeth Rosenbaum and Dr. Harry M. Deiber.

Another dinner that was given before the Kalakaua reception on Thursday evening was when Lieut. and Mrs. Ralph C. Holliday entertained for Maj. and Mrs. William B. Cochran and Mrs. Hugh Harrison of Los Angeles.

Maj. and Mrs. Otho B. Rosenbaum entertained informally at dinner on Sunday, in their home in the main garrison, for Mrs. Thomas J. Camp and Miss Jewel Mattis of Chicago.

Capt. Elmer F. Rice has been assigned to the 2nd Infantry and will soon move down from Castner to Fort Shafter.

The Fort Shafter Sewing Club met at the home of Mrs. Ralph C. Holliday on Wednesday. Those who sewed during the morning were Mrs. Edward Fuller Witsell, Mrs. Benjamin F. McClellan, Mrs. R. M. Lyon, Mrs. Charles L. Wyman, Mrs. Guy G. Palmer, Mrs. William R. Dashiell, Madame Pearson and Mrs. Holliday.

Lieut. and Mrs. Holloran entertained informally on Thursday evening for Mrs. Charles L. Wyman.

When Mrs. Robert R. Raymond entertained at cards on Wednesday, those invited from Fort Shafter were Mrs. Daniel Lane Howell, Mrs. Guy G. Palmer, Miss Campbell, Mrs. William E. Hunt, Mrs. Alden C. Knowles, Mrs. Raymond A. Wheeler and Mrs. William Reese Scott.

One of the most attractive dinners of the week was that given by Lieut. and Mrs. Frank A. Sloan. Pink roses made a charming centerpiece, while candles shaded in pink added much to the beauty of the table. Dainty rose cards marked the places for Commander and Mrs. Victor Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Schaefer, Capt. and Mrs. Claire R. Bennett and the host and hostess. Later Lieut. and Mrs. Sloan and their guests adjourned to the informal 2nd Infantry hop.

Capt. and Mrs. Claire R. Bennett had as their dinner guest on Thursday evening Mrs. Charles L. Wyman.

One of the largest and most delightful affairs of the week was the supper given before the 2nd Infantry hop on Friday evening by Capt. and Mrs. William E. Hunt, when they entertained for many of their friends in their quarters in the main garrison. The color scheme for the evening was pink. The decorations, which were most profuse and effective, were sweet peas and maidenhair fern. These dainty flowers also marked the centers of the small tables at which the guests were seated. Those enjoying Capt. and Mrs. Hunt's hospitality were Col. and Mrs. Daniel Lane Howell, Lieut. Col. and Mrs. William R. Dashiell, Madame Pearson, Maj. and Mrs. Guy G. Palmer, Miss Campbell, Capt. and Mrs. Alden C. Knowles, Capt. and Mrs. Edwin Simpson Hartshorn, Maj. and Mrs. Otho B. Rosenbaum, Col. and Mrs. William P. Kendall, Capt. and Mrs. Raymond A. Wheeler, Capt. Robert M. Lyon, Mrs. Charles L. Wyman, Mrs.

Edward Fuller Witsell, Dr. and Mrs. Bernhardt K. Stumberg, Mrs. Thomas J. Camp, Mrs. Lohman, Lieut. Eugene Lohman, Miss Jewel Mattis, Lieut. and Mrs. Rockwood and Lieut. and Mrs. John S. Sullivan.

Mrs. Thomas J. Camp has as luncheon guests on Thursday Mrs. Livingston Watrous and Mrs. Clyde R. Abraham of Schofield Barracks.

Capt. and Mrs. Lloyd R. Fredendall have taken the quarters recently occupied by Lieut. Theodore Martin in the cantonment.

Capt. and Mrs. Charles L. McKain have moved into quarters No. 7, formerly occupied by Capt. James E. Bell.

Capt. and Mrs. Joseph A. McAndrew entertained informally at luncheon on Friday for Capt. and Mrs. Lloyd R. Fredendall.

The hop on Friday evening though informal was a most enjoyable one. Many of the town people motored out and the service as usual was well represented. The guests were received by Maj. and Mrs. Guy C. Palmer of the Fort Shafter garrison.

The football game between the 2nd Infantry and Punahou, which was played on Wednesday, the 15th, was quite a success despite the weather. The 2nd Infantry team cheered on by hundreds of the 2nd Infantry and the music of that regiment, plunged through mud and rain-soaked sod to victory to the score of 12 to 0, while the honking of the horns of the automobiles parked on the Alexander Heights added to the excitement of a splendidly contested game. The cheering of the Oahu College young men and women was greatly enjoyed by the military enthusiasts, and although the rain kept many away yet those who braved the elements were well repaid. The hundred-dollar mark was almost reached. The men of the garrison responded nobly to the call of the promoter of the affair, Chaplain William Reese Scott, for the great cause of the Army Relief Society. Among those noticed at the game were Mr. Ernest T. Chase, dean of Oahu College; Maj. and Mrs. Otho B. Rosenbaum, Maj. and Mrs. William B. Cochran, Capt. and Mrs. Robert M. Lyon, Miss Bonnie Scott, Miss Mattis, Dr. Deiber, Capt. Joseph A. McAndrew, Lieut. William H. Britton, Capt. Edwin S. Hartshorn, Chaplain William Reese Scott, Capt. Charles L. McKain, Capt. William E. Hunt, Capt. Raymond A. Wheeler, Lieut. Col. William Weigel, Gen. Samuel L. Johnson, N. G. H.; Lieut. Chas. B. Lyman and many others.

Mrs. H. Taylor of New York entertained at dinner on Wednesday at the Moana hotel in honor of his daughter, Miss Hazel Taylor. The table was most attractive, having for its decorations sweet peas and maidenhair fern. Mr. Taylor's guests were Capt. and Mrs. Alden C. Knowles, Mr. Walker of New York and Miss Littell of Wilmington, Delaware. After dinner the host motored his guests to the Opera House, where they greatly enjoyed the Hawaiian drama, "Umi a Lilo."

Maj. William B. Cochran, 2nd Infantry, has been granted leave of absence for one month, to take effect upon his arrival in San Francisco. The major will leave on the transport sailing from Honolulu about December 5 and he will be accompanied by his mother, Madame Cochran, who will visit her son, Lieut. John H. Cochran, C. A. C. at Cape Fear, N. C., and numerous friends in Virginia. Madame Cochran will be greatly missed not only in the social life of Fort Shafter and Honolulu, where she is greatly beloved by all, but her absence also will be keenly felt in the church and Sunday school work of Fort Shafter, where she has been in every way of the greatest assistance to the chaplain, William Reese Scott. She will be missed as well in the philanthropic work of Fort Shafter, and every person in the garrison not only will greatly regret her departure, but also sincerely trust that she will shortly return to the post for a much longer stay.

Delivery Orders Received
 By Telephone
 1542-4676

Flavors—
 Vermont Maple Mousse
 Grape
 Cherry
 Butter Scotch
 Tutti Frutti
 Caramel
 Chocolate
 Orange
 Vanilla
 Strawberry
 Neapolitan
 Metropolitan

HONOLULU
 LAIRYMEN'S
 ASSOCIATION

Always to the front

Throughout Australia and the Pacific you will find that where Highlander Condensed Milk is used once, it is always used to the front. Because of its definite proven superiority, it has won its way to the top against competition of other brands. If the housewife will but try one tin—let her test it against the brand she is now using—she will quickly realize its superiority in flavour, richness, quality, purity, economy, value. Sounds like a big claim to make—let Highlander Condensed Milk prove it.

Made from the finest richest milk of specially selected herds in the rich dairying pastures of Southland, New Zealand, do you wonder that it excels?

A Free Cookery Book for You
 There's a Free copy of the Highlander Cookery Book awaiting you—only 200 beautifully illustrated pages of practical, economical tested recipes. Send your name and address to-day to "Highlander," Dept. "A," Fred L. Waldron, Ltd., Agents, Honolulu.

HIGHLANDER Condensed MILK

Come in and see

Our New Arrivals

We are showing the latest in Oriental Goods and Novelties

THE CHERRY

1137 Fort Street

Invest the bonus money in a Victrola

It will make an investment that will yield the uttermost educational value and happiness to your whole family.

VICTROLA XI
 $100.00

Victrolas may be purchased in different styles from $15.00 to $350.00.

The Victrola Library

The Victrola library of records is the largest in the world and contains the interpretations of the most celebrated artists.

If your bonus is not sufficient to cover the price of the Victrola you choose, we will arrange monthly instalments that will please you.

Victrola history will repeat itself this year with a shortage of machines probably more acute than last year. So it will be wise to send on your payment right away so that there will be no doubt of delivery in time for Xmas.

BERGSTROM MUSIC CO., LTD.

Phone 2321

Home of Hawaiian Music

1020 Fort Street

$15 for this Victrola

Just the instrument you want. You can easily take it out on the lawn, on your boat, or your camping trip—anywhere.

Mail us
 this coupon
 today

